Our Site Traffic and Value

For August 2009 our site generated over 34,000 page views. All dockets are exposed in Google and broadcast on Twitter.

We have a one-of-a-kind free professional legal research tool. In today's poor economy all businesses, including law firms, are looking to reduce their research costs as much as possible. Researchers are no longer forced to retrieve dockets using the "clunky" government database, Pacer, or pay outrageous fees to court docket vendors. Professionals are using free legal research web sites more than ever.
